About Me

- I am a German speaking IT-Trainer & Application Consultant. During the last months I raised my IT knowledge, building Front-End projects alone and in groups with JavaScript, HTML and CSS. You can find my projects in my public portfolio. In my last job I was responsible for training employees in using software applications all over Germany for 4 years and became familiar with the IT sector. Therefore, I decided to gain more experience building small applications by myself. Now I am looking for a new opportunity building on my IT knowledge & organizational skills.

You can find a variety of my Front-End projects in my public portfolio.

Main Stack:

- JavaScript, TypeScript, Angular
- HTML, CSS, Bootstrap

Side Stack:

- Github
- API 's
- Database

Skills

- Building Applications with JavaScript: I experienced using web technologies to build small applications like responsive websites, Jump-and-Run-Games and small business apps.
 - Good organizational skills: As an application consultant, I owned the organization of training events as well as client communication and always got good feedback for it.
 - Acquiring clients: I was able to acquire several new clients like EDEKA branches.
 - Key Account Management: I worked as Post-Sales Consultant solving communication issues between companies
